EX-GOVERNOR OF INDIANA TO SERVE SENTENCE

Appeal Not to Be Taken On Verdict; Must Also Pay $10,000 Fine

By R. A. THORNBURGH
For International News Service.
INDIANAPOLIS, April 30.—Warren T. McCray was sentenced to serve ten years in the Atlanta federal prison and fined $10,000 by Judge Albert B. Anderson today.

A few minutes before he had ceased to be governor of Indiana, his resignation becoming effective at 10 o'clock. Sentence was passed at 10:17 o'clock on his conviction on a charge of using the mails to promote a scheme to defraud.

Dramatic Case
As he laid down the reins of government they were taken up by Emmett F. Branch of Martinsville, who was sworn in by Chief Justice Eubanks of the state supreme court.

The sentence brought to a close one of the most tragic and dramatic stories in the history of Indiana.

McCray, a prominent farmer and internationally known live stock man, elected to the highest position the people of Indiana may bestow, spent the last two nights in the federal row or "bull pen" of the Marion county jail, along with convicted bootleggers and common criminals.

There will be no appeal from the decision of the jury and judge, McCray's counsel said.

McCray, in company with Linus P. Meredith, United States marshal for Indiana, left for Atlanta this afternoon.

No change of expression marked McCray's face as Judge Anderson pronounced the sentence, which was more severe than generally expected.

In passing sentence, Judge Anderson said:

"If I should attempt to mete out punishment in comparison to the crime, I could not overdo it. Within the three years he was governor he violated the law innumerable times. I must sentence him to ten years in the Atlanta federal penitentiary and fine him $10,000."

The judge explained that he would sentence the defendant to five years on each of the thirteen counts in the indictment, but that the prisoner would be freed when ten years of his sentence had been served, and his fine would be $1000 on each count, but that he would have to pay only $10,000.

EXPERTS CHOSEN TO AID GERMANY

Three Committees Named to Organize Resources in Reparations Plan

PARIS, April 30.—The inter-allied reparations commission today appointed members to three of the committees that will organize German finance, industry and railways under the Dawes' plan. The commission urged immediate action as the opinion is becoming general that the quicker the plan is executed the sooner the allies will be brought into harmonious relations upon the reparations issue.

The appointments were the committee to organize Germany's railways, Sir William Acworth and M. Leveque; committee to regulate Germany's industrial obligations, Sir Robert Kildersley; committee to supervise German banking, Alfred Deschamps and Sir Alberto Perelli.

COMMITTS SUICIDE
HOLLYWOOD, April 30.—R. E. Hewes, said to be an author of note, committed suicide last night at Hotel Christie here.

Has Message

DR. WALTER F. DEXTER, president of Whittier college, who spoke here last night.

SAYS WORLD IN NEED OF SYMPATHY

Head of Whittier College Makes Address Before Mission Meeting

"Give sympathy, render service to gain security and win cooperation," was the final message of Dr. Walter F. Dexter, president of Whittier college, in his address last night before the women's missionary convention at the First Congregational church.

His subject was "The Attitude of the Christian Patriot Concerning World Peace" and his message was that the saving of the republic could be found in sympathy; that sympathy means service and that sympathy and service mean security of the republic.

Hundreds Attend
The convention, which is the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Union of Southern California, and the thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific, Southern Branch, has attracted over 200 congregational women from churches south of Bakersfield and many churches in Arizona.

Last night over 200 of the delegates and local church women had dinner at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. During the dinner hour Mrs. A. H. Weltkamp directed.

COOLIDGE GAINS OHIO DELEGATES

Beats Johnson by Sweeping Majority; Cox Has Big Lead Over McAdoo

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 30.—President Calvin Coolidge defeated Senator Hiram Johnson in the Ohio presidential primaries yesterday by a vote of 6 1/2 to one, while former Governor James M. Cox was maintaining a nearly 3 to 1 lead over William Gibbs McAdoo in the Democratic primaries, returns received here today showed.

In 6,148 precincts out of 8,350 in the state, Coolidge received 127,954; Johnson, 20,977; Cox, 56,846; McAdoo, 21,214.

An extremely light vote was cast, not more than one in seven of the qualified electors going to the polls.

Every congressional district in the state was swept by the organization forces supporting Coolidge and Cox respectively.

In a number of sections of the state voters wrote in the name of Senator Robert M. La Follette as a Republican presidential candidate, and several reported a larger vote for him than for the California senator.

Aged Recluse Burned In Blaze at Harbor

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—An aged recluse was burned to death and three other persons narrowly escaped a similar fate when fire which started from an overturned lantern destroyed a fisherman's home at the harbor here today. The body of Leonard R. Turner, 62, widely known along the water front as "Silent Pete," was found in the smoldering ruins by firemen.

King George to Sign Rum Running Treaty

LONDON, April 30.—Announcement was made by the foreign office today that King George will sign the Anglo-American rum running treaty within two days. Under the terms of the treaty American authorities may search suspected whiskey smuggling ships beyond the official three-mile limit.

LABOR MINISTRY BUDGET PRAISED

Macdonald Cabinet In Strong Position as Taxation Plans Are Told

LONDON, April 30.—The friendly reception of the labor government's first budget placed the Macdonald cabinet in a stronger position today. The only fly in the ointment was the announcement that the McKenna duties, protecting British manufacturers of musical instruments, clocks and films would be lifted August 1, allowing free influx of foreign goods.

Leaders of both the Labor and Liberal parties said they were well pleased with the budget, the liberals claiming it is a sign that the laborites are willing to co-operate with them.

The Daily News declared that the cordial reception of the budget had "postponed the possibility of an immediate general election."

Former Premier Asquith's endorsement of the budget indicates that the liberals and laborites will co-operate in passing it in the House of Commons.

Fight on Plague Is Gaining, Says Houck

SACRAMENTO, April 30.—Marked improvement in the hoof and mouth disease situation in California was claimed today by Dr. U. G. Houck, head of the federal forces fighting the livestock scourge.

Only three new infections were reported and these were confined to areas under rigid quarantine in Los Angeles and Merced counties. Two of the new cases being in the Los Angeles district and the other in Merced.

California Solon Protests Plans to Supersede Jap Ban

WASHINGTON, April 30.—An energetic protest against the plan to negotiate an immigration treaty with Japan that would supersede the exclusion legislation already passed by congress was made to President Coolidge at the White House today by Senator Shortridge, Republican of California.

He told the president that immigration restriction was "purely a domestic matter" and one that the state department had no moral right to interfere with.

COX IN CONTROL OF OHIO'S VOTES

Buckeye Politician to Play Important Part When Democrats Meet

WASHINGTON, April 30.—James M. Cox, who led the hosts of Democracy to defeat in 1920, has been dealt a hand in the game of high strategy and shrewd tactics that will be played at Madison Square garden in June to select an opponent for Calvin Coolidge.

This was the principal reaction of Democratic leaders in the capital to the results of the Ohio presidential primary, wherein the former governor easily defeated William Gibbs McAdoo and captured control of Ohio's large delegation to the Democratic national convention.

To Fight McAdoo
Leading Democrats agreed that Governor Cox is going to make his influence felt in the capital at New York that must inevitably take place before any candidate can secure the necessary two-thirds to nominate.

In some quarters in Washington the victory of Cox over McAdoo in Ohio was looked upon today as greatly strengthening the formidable group in the convention that has turned thumbs down on McAdoo and will fight his nomination to the last ditch—and beyond.

DEATH STALKS IN PATH OF TORNADO

One Killed, Two Injured as Gale Sweeps Oklahoma, Arkansas Towns

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 30.—One person was killed and two others injured, one perhaps fatally, in the tornado which struck Ingalls late yesterday, according to word received here today.

Mrs. Roy Fyle was killed and her husband was injured, probably fatally, when a forty-mile gale swept their home away. Mrs. J. F. Bailey also was injured.

At Texarkana, Ark., Luther Thompson, Jr., 5, is dead, and fourteen other persons are suffering minor injuries as the result of a tornado which struck just north of the city late yesterday, causing property damage estimated at $25,000. The wind reached an estimated velocity of 100 miles an hour, destroying a number of houses and tearing down fences in its path.

STOPS CONVENTION

VIENNA, April 30.—The government today prohibited the Austrian nationalist minority from holding a proposed general convention.

PLEADS FOR IMPROVED METHODS

Edwin T. Keiser In Talk To Local Realtors at Oakmont Club

"True salesmanship consists of ascertaining what a customer wants and then selling him that kind of property," declared Edwin T. Keiser, state real estate commissioner, at the luncheon of the Glendale Board at the Oakmont Country club at noon today, when about 150 members and their wives were present to hear his address on present conditions in the realty profession throughout California.

Mr. Keiser stressed the need for the exercise of a high ethical standard in all dealings with purchasers of real estate, declaring that selling service consists in delivering real estate to the customer that will be of service to him, or the seller fails in his task.

'Heartless Salesmen'
"Many troubles of the state real estate department," he asserted, "are caused by the unconscionable work of heartless salesmen." Mr. Keiser defined the limitations placed on his department by the laws of the state, pointing out that it cannot take the place of the courts in deciding questions in which a legal aspect is involved, but that it can only exercise supervision over the activities of the brokers and salesmen.

Checking Reports
Referring to the reports that have been sent to him that some persons in Glendale are offering real estate for sale when they have not secured licenses to do so, Mr. Keiser declared that such persons lay themselves open to a heavy fine and possibly to a term in prison for violation of the statutes. He added, however, that he has been unable to investigate all of these reports because of the lack of funds in his department to pay investigators. This condition, however, will be altered after July 1, he said, when more money will be available for his department and he will then be able to place more investigators in the field.

Any information regarding such alleged violations of the law, he promised, will be kept confidential.

The commissioner also outlined his plans for the publication of the directory and his efforts to secure more money for this purpose. This year's licenses show that 11,000 more salesmen have been licensed up to date this year than were licensed during the same period last year, although the number of brokers licensed shows a slight falling off, due, he believes, to the difficulties encountered in filling out the qualification.

JAPS RUSHING TO ACQUIRE BRIDES

Many Reported Sailing for Homeland; Return Before New Bill Effective

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—The new immigration bill with its Japanese exclusion provision has developed into a first aid measure to Dan Cupid in boosting his June quota.

Nearly 500 Japanese men have sailed on steamers from Pacific ports in the past few days in a mad rush to Japan to secure brides so that they can return to the United States before the provisions of the measure become effective.

"Be sure and return before June 30," a Japanese paper warned its bachelor readers. Steamship companies reported they were unable to provide sufficient accommodations for all who desire to make the trip.

MISS ELIZABETH MARBURY

In Democratic circles there is a well defined supposition that prominent women in the party will make a determined effort to have a woman chosen as vice presidential candidate, and that Miss Elizabeth Marbury of New York is the woman they want named.

Miss Marbury, a New Yorker, is a member of the Democratic national committee and is the moving spirit in the arrangements for the reception of women delegates to the national convention in New York.

Advertising Fund Drive Passes $30,000 Mark As Workers Resume Campaign

Starting with a bang, the "clean-up" campaign of the $50,000 advertising drive netted $1624 for this morning's efforts of the new army of 100 workers, it was reported to Chairman M. Walters of the Chamber of Commerce ways and means committee, at the luncheon held this noon at the Harriett Mae tea room, 201 East Harvard street. This brings the drive total to $30,206.50.

The campaign will continue tomorrow and Friday, with luncheons each noon at the same place. Mr. Walters announced. Major Charles B. Guthrie of the realtors' division was not present this noon, as he met with his workers at the weekly luncheon of the Glendale Realty board, held at the Oakmont Country club.

The workers' luncheon at the Harriett Mae tea room was characterized by enthusiasm and the determination to raise at least $15,000 in the clean-up campaign.

March to Success
With offensives under way or planned on five fronts, the $50,000 advertising fund "Drive Army" is advancing to the certain goal of success, announced Chairman M. Walters of the C. of C. ways and means committee, commander-in-chief, at this noon's luncheon, after a conference with his five majors: Lyman P. Clark, Charles B. Guthrie, R. E. Johnston, George B. Karr and Dr. H. R. Boyer.

The following summary clearly indicates the plan of action: Offensive No. 1—"Clean-up" campaign. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, among local merchants and property owners.

Offensive No. 2—Los Angeles campaign, in charge of F. P. Newport, A. R. Eastman and Roy L. Kent.

Offensive No. 3—"Heavy-weight" campaign, comprising a special big committee to urge those who should have contributed but have not yet done their share, to "come across."

Offensive No. 4—Kiwanis-Exchange club baseball game.

Everything is in readiness for the May Festival and cantata to Grand View school, under the auspices of the Grand View Parent-Teacher association when over four hundred children will take part.

The affair is the "Carnival of Flowers" and has been under the direction of Miss Helen Reynolds, and a group of assistants, and is without a doubt the largest event ever planned by the association.
The cantata will be held outdoors and 175 of the children are to be elaborately costumed and to represent flowers, breezes, fairies and summer winds. An especially beautiful lighting system has ment and achievements of the W. C. T. U. This address was advised worthy enough for publication by the delegates and as soon as possible copies will be ready for distribution.

Of considerable interest to Glendaleans is the fact that most of the officers were re-elected, including Mrs. L. E. Richardson, corresponding secretary. Mrs.
Edith Dockery, superintendent of Americanization, and Mrs. L. C.
Yeoman, superintendent of the furthering of the aims and hopes of the W. C. T. U.

noon at the schoolhouse, with the Announcement was made relative to the silver tea and radio

clusive, and urged as many moth-present.

ment association, who recently made twelve new benches for the recipe and plant sale was conducted, when $8 was realized.

Mrs. Maier, courtesy chairman,

REPORT REVEALS
ACTIVITY AMONG
NEW PEOPLE HERETravelers' Aid Society Head Tells Scope of Work for Women, Girls

That the list of women and girls who have "disappeared" is longer in Los Angeles than in any other city in the world is one of the startling facts coming from headquarters of the Travelers' Aid society of Los Angeles, of which Charles H. Toll of Glendale is chairman.

The great work that this organization is doing for travelers of all types was described recently at a luncheon of the Tuesday Afternoon club in a talk by Miss Dorothy E. Wysox, general secretary.

Cover Wide Field

From January, 1923, to January, 1924, some of the things accomplished by the aid society were: Met 222,000 steam and interurban trains; helped and protected 23,000 travelers; guided 821 minor children to destination; returned 86 runaway youngsters to frantic homes; assisted immigrants representing a total of 43 nationalities; helped the sick, the aged and helpless and those stranded without friends, funds or relatives.

One of the biggest problems of the city of Los Angeles, as shown by the Travelers' Aid society, is caring for the 10,000 adolescent girls and boys who are lured yearly by the movies.

The regular sources of financial support of the organization are $100 per month from the Bureau of Catholic charities; $85 per month from the Jewish federation; $50 per month from each of the two local railways. From January, 1923, to January, 1924, the aid received and spent about $13,000.

Funds Are Raised

Some of the Protestant churches are now taking up collections for the work, but so far funds have been raised chiefly by letter appeal to clubs, associations and private individuals.
here are 2000 individual contributors, whose donations range from the membership fee of $1 to patron memberships of $100.

In presenting the cause to Glendaleans Mr. Toll gives the following information as to memberships in the Travelers' Aid: Life membership, $1000 at any one time; patron membership, $100 per year; honorary membership, $50 per year; sustaining membership, $25 per year; special membership, $10 per year; active membership, $5 per year; contributing membership, $1 per year.

society of the Holy Family Catholic church.

There were over forty guests present. The rooms of the Cum-berworth home were attractively decorated for the occasion with artistic arrangements of California poppies.

During the afternoon five hundred was played, when prizes for high score, Mrs. Frank A.

Yaeger second prize and Mrs.

VARIED PROGRAM FOR MUSIC WEEK NOW COMPLETED

Many Events to Take Place
Here Under Auspices of Community Service

"Give More Time to Music" is the slogan Glendale has adopted for the local observance of National Music Week, May 4 and 10, under the auspices of Community Service. It is most fitting that in anticipation of this week of harmony Glendale's "Singing Mayor," Spencer Robinson should issue a proclamation declaring that:

"Music has come to be one of the most vital forces in our civic life. The nation as a whole is turning its attention to music during the period designated by our president as 'National Music Week.'"

"As Mayor of Glendale, I hereby set apart the week of May 4 to 10, inclusive, as Glendale's music week, and recommend that every church, club, society, lodge, or any other organization meeting during that week, co-operate with Glendale Community Service in arranging musical programs or talks on music. Glendale has a host of good musicians, let's fill this week with music."

Prepare Big Program
Carrying out the mayor's suggestion an extensive program has been arranged with every event free to the public.

Beginning on Sunday, Music Week will open with special music in the churches of Glendale. On the afternoon of the same day Glendale people will participate in the Southern California music festival in the Hollywood Bowl. The Glendale Symphony orchestra and the Glendale Choral club, directed by J. Arthur Myers will play.

The local schools will present school music on Monday. Special assemblies will be held at the various schools and Miss Elsa Brenneman, musical director, cordially invites parents and friends to attend these programs.

At noon a special musical program will be given at the luncheon of the Merchant's association. In the evening a paper on music will be given by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The same evening the Glendale Choral club and Glendale Symphony orchestra will give a program at the Broadway High school.

Concert by Radio
A brilliant radio concert is to be the big feature of Tuesday night, May 6. Specially installed receiving apparatus is to bring the program to the Harvard High school auditorium. Earlier in the day there will be school assemblies, a musical program at the noon luncheon of the Exchange club, and in the evening a program at the Emerson School of Self-Expression.

Events of Wednesday, May 7 will be a musical program at the noon luncheon of the Glendale Rotary board; special open meeting of the General Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R.; open air concert in the evening at the Harvard High school by Glendale Community band; and music federation night program put on by musical organizations in the federation, with Mrs. Charles A. Parker as chairman.

Some Other Events
More school assemblies will be held Thursday, May 8. Then there

High School Day To Be Observed At Oxy on May 7

The Occidental women's annual high school day is set for Wednesday of next week, May 7. All Occidental women and senior girls from many of the Southern California high schools will pay their homage to the Oxy May queen. The festival will be brought to a climax with the crowning of Miss Beth Dean as the queen. Final ceremonies of the day will take place at President and Mrs. R. D. Bird's home. Miss Beth Dean will reign and be hostess to all the visiting women. Dr. Bird will address the guests during the chapel assembly. The installation of next year's officers will close the day.

MIXED LOVE WITH PAINTING, CHARGE

Divorce Complaint Alleges
Hubby Too Attentive
To Pretty Models

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 30.—Mary Park Neilson of New York filed suit for divorce today against Raymond Neilson, her famous naval officer-business man-artist husband, in a complaint receding of the studio life of Bohemian Paris and New York and the smart society life of Bar Harbor, and New York, charging cruelty and frequent love affairs with his pretty models and fashionable sitters for the portraits which have been exhibited on both sides of the Atlantic.

Mrs. Neilson stated in her complaint that when she married Neilson he was an officer in the navy. That was in 1906. Later he resigned from the service and went into the real estate business and then decided that his mission in life was to paint. Here the trouble began, according to Mrs. Neilson. For her husband, she said, had no money with which to study art and support his family, so she used her own personal allowance, granted by her father, to pay for his art training and to send him to Paris.

Invalid, 90 Years Old, Immersed in Baptism

COLUMBUS, Ind., April 30.—Mrs. Agnes Boyle, 90 years old, of this city, oldest woman in Bartholomew county, was carried in an invalid's chair into the Tabernacle Christian church here recently and immersed while in the chair by the Rev. W. H. Book, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Ralph Records. The old woman has been a church member many years, but only recently decided to be immersed.

Following the immersion the pastor, with W. F. Kendall and Marshall Hacker, members of the church, went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hege, an old shut-in couple, where the pastor held a communion service for them. The wine used was taken from a silver tankard that has been in the Hege family 150 years and in the olden times was used for dispensing hospitality generally. Mr. Hege is 88 and Mrs. Hege is 84 years old.

Rehbold, traveling passenger agent of the company, who states that the special will be a section of the Golden State Limited and will leave the new Glendale station at 10:05 a. m., May 22, arriving at Kansas City 5:25 p. m., May 24, and at Chicago 9:15 a. m., May 25, thus making the run in three days, without change of cars.

CONFERENCE LAYS PLANS FOR SMITH

Discuss Possibilities of
New York Governor In Nomination Race

NEW YORK, April 30.—Leading Democratic politicians conferred today with Governor Alfred E. Smith with a view to reconstructing a national stimulation of his boom for the presidency which was regarded in some quarters as somewhat retarded by the sudden death of Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader.

Among those at the conference were Governor Smith, George F. Brennan, Chicago, and Norman E. Mack, Buffalo.

Mack said it was possible a Smith campaign committee may be formed. He asserted those at the conference were hopeful concerning Governor Smith's chance for receiving the presidential nomination.

Hudson will be sent by the music department of the Hollywood Woman's club. Harvot, Frank Maginnis, Gertrude Ross, C. A. Davis, Abbie Norton Jamison and the Misses Ethel Congdon, Millie Mattison, Marjorie Bryson, Elna Duffield, and Corinne Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin of Santa Ana have left for the convention.

Want Troops to Help Fight Cattle Plague

SACRAMENTO, April 30.—Two appeals for national guardsmen to patrol the area in Madera county, where the foot-and-mouth disease has appeared, were received by Adjutant General R. E. Mittelstaedt. Sheriff John E. General Madera county, wired General Mittelstaedt as follows:

"All county funds are exhausted, and if the disease is to be curbed, we must have organized aid in patrol duty. The present outbreak is among 6000 head of cattle at the edge of the foothills, and endangers the entire valley, including the forest reserves. Please do all you can to aid. This appeal is made after weeks of deliberations and labor with the limited means at hand."

A request of troops was also made by the Madera county council of the American Legion, the appeal being signed by Sam B. Hearn, district representative of the state commander.

Ex-Cabinet Members In Trial of Lawsuits

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Three members of the late President Wilson's cabinet, four former Democratic senators and eight congressmen, appeared before the war department to prosecute claims against the government within two years after leaving office. Secretary of War Weeks reported to the Senate today. The former cabinet members, Weeks said, were William Gibbs McAdoo, A. Mitchell Palmer and Thomas Watt Gregory.

The Senate demanded their names after charges were made that such employment was in direct violation of the law.

ASKS NAVY LEAVE SHIPS IN HARBOR

Reserve Force Head Claims
Department Is Failing
To Co-operate

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—In a sensational letter from the president of the Naval Reserve Officers' Association to the commandant of the eleventh naval district it is charged that the navy has treated this district, located in Southern California, as an unwelcome foster child because of its systematic discriminations against the reservists and its failure to co-operate with them.

The specific complaint is in regard to the refusal of the naval authorities to allow the active vessels to remain in southern waters during the months of July and August when the 900 reservists in this district have their summer vacations.

"Some of the treatment the reserve force may merit," states the letter, "but certainly it is unnecessary when applied to the reservists of this district. The reserve force in this district asks no favors, they can and will deliver 100 per cent, but they feel that to date the department has failed to meet them half way and that the approved policy provided for making them an integral part of the navy is not materially helped by the recommendations of the commander-in-chief."

"If the reserve force is to be developed and made of value to the navy, this continued treatment as an unwelcome foster child, will not accomplish the desired results, nor will such treatment attract and hold the type of officer and man needed to make the organization influential and efficient."

The navy department has assigned only the "cattle boats" to southern waters for the summer and has decreed that May and June or October and November will be the time when the destroyers will be available for the training of the reservists in the district. Out of the 900 officers and men only thirteen officers and twenty-eight men have vacations during those months.

Cooldige campaign managers in California expect that a greater percentage of the electorate will go to the polls on May 6 than at any other presidential primary in the history of the state. President Coolidge's success in California, they maintain, is insured if a

Crepe Soles Latest Wrinkle in Footwear

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—They're bouncing around on crepe rubber heels and soles this year. That's the latest for the pedestrian who has flattened his feet on the pavement these many moons.

Crepe rubber soles are a half-inch thick—nothing more or less than the raw stuff after one refining. It has been used for years in the tropics and was first placed on the market for shoe soles three years ago.

Now the new footwear is the rage in Los Angeles. Shells are suggesting that fathers-in-law wear the rubber kicks so their dogs won't bite when directed along the line of the front steps.

Examination Called For Narcotic Agents

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—All those who have had at least one year's experience with major criminal investigation or six months' work in illicit drug prevention and investigation may apply, until May 20, for positions as federal narcotic agents. It has been announced that 125 agents will be added to the present force of 175, so as to prosecute the fight against the dope ring with the utmost possible vigor.

San Diego Repudiates Charge on Fumigation

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Word received by the Santa Fe railway here reveals the fact that San Diego county has repudiated its order that all train passengers be charged $1 for fumigation at the county line.

Those who will be entertained are Mrs. Addie Garwood Estes, president of the Northern California Chapter of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. D. E. F. Easton, well known San Francisco club woman; Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, chairman of the women's division and the first woman to be elected as a delegate to a national republican convention, and Mrs. Helen Matthews Laughlin, dean of women at the University of California Southern Branch.

In addition to these women, whose names will appear on the primary ballot, Mrs. Laura Taylor Kelly, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Robert Palmer, of San Bernardino; and Mrs. Frank Short, of Fresno, alternates for Coolidge delegation candidates are also expected to attend the meeting.

Mrs. W. E. Evans of Glendale, whose husband is a candidate on the Coolidge ticket for delegate to the national convention, will be among those attending from this city.

A reception will be held between the hours of 12:30 p. m. and 1 p. m., on next Thursday in honor of the delegates.

Women who will make up the receiving line in addition to the women delegates are Mrs. G. E. Winn, Mrs. W. W. Nash of Pasadena; Mrs. Lillian Spannagel of Long Beach; Mrs. J. A. Allard, of Pomona; Mrs. Fred A. Kellogg, of Van Nuys; Mrs. Ellen French Aldrich, of Sawtelle and Mrs. Kate H. Pock, sectional chairman of the women's division.

Arrange Details
All arrangements for the luncheon have been made, according to the members of the entertainment committee who are Mrs. Christopher Gordon and Mrs. F. C. Magauran and Mrs. Estelle Omdalon. Mrs. Gordon announced that because of the limited number of places available at the luncheon table it will be necessary for those who expect to attend to make reservations at the Coolidge headquarters in the Angelus hotel, or at the headquarters of the Pasadena Coolidge club in Hotel Green, Pasadena.

Student Body Is Taking Vote on Dancing Question

A student vote is being taken at Occidental college to determine the stand of the student body on the installation of college dancing. The question has been discussed pro and con for several years and the students are desirous of knowing the actual stand on dancing. A ballot was run in the college newspaper, The Occidental, and most of the readers have taken the trouble to fill out the slip for or against school dancing. The ballots are being counted and checked over today and the results will be announced tomorrow.

CHRISTIANITY IS SUCCESS, CLAIMS FRENCH SOLDIER

Speaks at Mission Meet and Makes Plea for League of Nations

"America first—but after America, the world." Flinging the challenge, "Is Christianity a failure?" and answering it sternly "No!" Captain Paul Perigord, historian, soldier and world traveler, gripped the large audience at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon and held them spellbound with his eloquence and logic.

Captain Perigord, who relinquished a professorship of history at Columbia university to fight with the armies of France in the world war, spoke by invitation to the Woman's Home Missionary Union of Southern California (thirty-sixth annual meeting) and the Woman's Board Missions for the Pacific, Southern Branch (thirty-fourth annual session), holding a two-day conference at the Congregational church, April 29 and 30.

Message from Church
The speaker told of the 9,000,000 young men who had died on the fields of battle in the late war, and of the additional 9,000,000 who have since succumbed to injuries received during the conflict; and he spoke of the billions of treasure hurled recklessly to the winds of ruin, treasure that would have advanced humanity hundreds of years and wiped poverty from the face of the earth forever.

Captain Perigord pictured the message of the church as a message mutilated in being handed down from its founders, pointing out that the great words of Apostle Paul, "Love Ye One Another," had never been interpreted aright, with the individual, he said, "It has succeeded with the family, with the state and with the nation—but there it has stopped and internationally it is today a failure. There has never yet been a Christian temple completed, because the keystone of internationalism was lacking."

Longing For Peace
"After the Napoleonic wars had racked Europe, leaving it bankrupt in money and manhood alike, the masses of the people longed for peace no less ardently than they long for peace today, and many thought that war could never come again—but war came again, more terrible than before, and again today Europe longs for peace."

"The League of Nations idea is not new. It is older than Christianity. Internationalism exists, whether we admit it or not. The prosperity of one nation cannot be built upon the misery of another nation. The trouble is, the statesmen of the various nations

Science of Soul Is Subject of Lecture

Guy B. Moore took as his subject, "The Science of the Soul," for his address at the Occult Science of Christ church, 113 South Orange street, last Sunday night.

He held that the science of the soul was the factor through which one could train and purify the vestures, the instruments of the soul, thereby rendering it possible for the soul, or the self within, to manifest itself in all its perfection in this physical world.

Gun and Horsewhip Charges Dismissed

Mrs. Nettie Williams and her son, Sidney, were found not guilty in a hurry by Judge F. H. Lowe this morning on a charge of using force and violence on the person of Isidor Mintz.

In freeing the two defendants, the judge assessed the costs of the case, $20, against the plaintiff, Mintz, stating that it was clearly a case of malicious prosecution.

He was given until Friday morning to pay the fine.

Mintz claimed, it is said, that the son forced him to go to the house of his mother at the point of a gun Saturday night where she gave him a horsewhipping. The son was able to prove a clear alibi.

The trouble arose out of a case heard by a jury in Judge Lowe's court some time ago when Mintz was found not guilty on a charge of battery brought by Mrs. Williams. Sidney Williams stated this morning that his mother was going to sue Mintz for damages for malicious prosecution.

J. G. Starr, secretary of the harbor board, in a letter to the council, advises them that they are in error, as he finds no record of having given the fire department any funds for additional equipment.

FRUIT JUICE IS UNDER DRY'S BAN

Any Little Fermentation to Place Apples, Peaches
On Criminal List

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The apple, the peach, the pear, the cherry and all other manner of fresh fruits, were added today to the prohibition rogues' gallery, alongside such culprits as the little brown jug, the cocktail shaker and the juniper berry.

A ruling handed down by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes stated that hereafter it shall be unlawful to partake of fruit juices in the home that may have forgotten themselves to such an extent as to ferment. Even the possession of such unwholesome juices has become unlawful, the commissioner decided.

Representative Gallivan of Massachusetts, one of the "wet" leaders in Congress, waxed caustic today about Haynes' new ruling. Hereafter a strictly law-abiding family, he said, will have to divide itself into day and night watches to keep an eye glued on the cut glass bowl in the center of the table. As soon as an apple becomes goggly-eyed, a peach gets tipsy or a cherry mistakes Tuesday morning for Saturday night—into the garbage can it must go.

The trial, which lasted less than three days, was one of the most dramatic in Mexico. When the verdict was announced the spectators cheered frantically.

The girl defendant shot and killed Llorca outside his home after the senator had shot to death her father, Jesus Moreno, a newspaper writer.

Never in the history of the republic has there been such a demonstration as for the acquittal of the beautiful young girl. Ten thousand persons blocked traffic in front of Belem court for more than half an hour, cheering.

MONTECITO PARK TO HAVE MARKET

Building In Mission Style
Will Be Erected at Cost of $20,000

H. S. Barnum and M. Walters, Sparr Heights subdividers, this morning approved plans for a Mission style market and store building which they will erect at the junction of Canada boulevard and Arlington avenue. The plans call for an expenditure of $20,000.

The building, to be known as the Montecito Market, after Montecito park, was designed by A. F. Leicht, architect of Los Angeles. It will have incorporated in its construction all modern features and will be an ornamental as well as a commercial asset to the community.

Situated in a triangle at the intersection of the roads, it will be surrounded by spacious, covered walks, and the design is such that it will have the appearance of an entire open air market. A. E. Tacey is in charge of the construction, and plans to rush the work through to completion.

Asks List of Packers' Contribution to Fund

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A resolution calling upon John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National committee, to furnish a list of contributions by the so-called "big five" packers to the campaign funds of the Republican party since 1920, was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Magnus Johnson, farmer-laborer of Minnesota.

Johnson charged the packers "have not paid farmers an adequate price for their livestock." He asked for contributions of Swift, Armour, Wilson, Cudahy and Morris.

Supreme Court Gives Ruling on Bank Power

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Supreme court of the United States held that a national bank could not be denied the privilege to exercise its powers by the laws of a state.

The Supreme court of Missouri ruled that the Burns National bank of St. Joseph, Mo., was prohibited from acting as an executor by the laws of Missouri.

The bank appealed on the grounds that national banks, operating under federal statutes, could not be regulated in this respect by state laws.

RED LETTER DAY FOR CAR OWNERS ALL OVER COAST

Western Auto Supply Co. to Start Special Saving
Celebration Today

Today is a "Red Letter Day" for motorists all over the Pacific coast. This date will mark the inauguration of the Western Auto Supply Company's special saving month to be held in celebration of the opening of their 100th store. In all cities where Western Auto Supply Company stores are located the managers will hold open house from 7 a. m. to 9 at night and that time will be given over to entertainment of guests. In this city, Mr. Roubesh, who manages the Western Auto store located at Glendale, has arranged a program of speaking, music and other entertainment that will prove very interesting. Refreshments will be served at the local Western Auto store, and in addition there will be distributed to persons attending the entertainment sixteen accessory prizes that total in value over $55, consisting of ten Special Cop-Spotter rear vision mirrors, three spot lights, two curved metal visors and one twin bar bumper. The two hours of entertainment at the Western Auto store do not, by any means, inaugurate the sale, as no merchandise will be sold during this time. The hours specified will be devoted to entertainment of Western Auto's guests. The special saving sale, which will last all through May, will start the morning following the celebration and it is reported that motorists will greatly benefit by the prices that have been placed on Western Auto's quality accessories for that month. George Pepperdine, president of the Western Auto Supply company, in making public the plans for this month of savings opportunity for motorists, stated that he realized that if it were not for the confidence and continued patronage of the motoring public the enormous and rapid growth of Western Auto Supply company to 100 stores in the west would not have been possible, and that he had long since decided that upon the opening of the 100th store he would give every motorist in the Western Auto territory an opportunity to share in the profits of the Western Auto Supply company through purchasing needed automobile accessories and supplies at greatly reduced prices. Inasmuch as it has always been the Western Auto policy to sell quality merchandise at prices lower than are usually found elsewhere, the further reduction that this sale will cause should bring forth some extraordinary values.

Quantity Buying
It is hard for some people to realize how it is possible for Western Auto stores to sell standard accessories for lower prices than can be secured elsewhere. The secret is in buying. Purchasing supplies for 100 stores makes it possible to buy much cheaper than if a buyer had but one store to stock. An organization like the Western Auto Supply company, buying the enormous quantities they buy, can often afford to buy the entire output of a factory for exclusive sale in their stores. Buying in great quantities they are able to eliminate the profits of middlemen and their supplies coming direct from the factory can consequently be sold at an attractive figure. Another thing entering into this problem is the tremendous volume of sales enjoyed by the Western Auto stores that make it possible to sell at a small unit profit and depend on increased sales to pay store expenses and dividends. The merchandise policy of all the Western Auto stores, from the huge main store in Los Angeles to the newest store that was recently opened, is one of fair dealing, low prices and quality merchandise. Rigid adherence to this policy has undoubtedly been one of the greatest factors in Western Auto's growth.

PASADENA, April 30.—Of the 1,400 cattle which comprised the twenty-five herds at Lamoda Park only 400 cows are left, which are distributed through six herds, the rest have been slaughtered by the enforcers of the hoof and mouth disease regulations.

It is very evident, from the preparations that are being made, that visitors to the local Western Auto store tonight will thoroughly enjoy themselves, and the ensuing sale promises to be a real event.

The Del Monte Properties Company, Hotel Del Monte, California, have been using Zerolene for twelve years. Their 23 pieces of automotive equipment, including 12 Winton automobiles, are lubricated exclusively with Zerolene oils and greases.

At DEL MONTE service counts too

Equally important with the quality of Zerolene, which we believe to be the best oil made for the lubrication of the modern automobile, whether of eastern or western origin and irrespective of price, is the service offered by over 700 Standard Oil Company Service Stations and thousands of Zerolene dealers throughout the Pacific Coast states.

A recent letter from the Del Monte Properties Company, Del Monte, Calif., makes this point:

"We operate a fleet of twelve Winton cars in the guest passenger service in addition to quite a fleet of commercial type vehicles, ranging all the way from Fords to five-ton Packard trucks, all of which are lubricated with the Zerolene oils and greases supplied by your company.

"The uniformly prompt and courteous treatment which we have received in connection with this service is a credit to your organization and it is putting it mildly indeed to state that our experience both with your products and service has been highly satisfactory."

Big users don't pay tribute to the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about "eastern" oils just because they cost more—why should you? Insist on Zerolene, even if it does cost less.

Diet and Health

By LULU HUNT PETERS, M.D.
Author of Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories

WATER DRINKING

There are many people who undoubtedly suffer from getting too little water. Sometimes indigestion and headaches are due to the fact that there is a lack of water in the system.

Just how much water should be drunk in a day depends upon several factors—your age, size, exercise, the season, the amount of other fluids taken (milk, soup, fruit juices, etc.), and the concentration and amounts of food taken. Water comprises about two-thirds of the body weight and we should keep about that proportion. Water is necessary for all of the body fluids and secretions, and is a part of every cell in the body; it holds the food elements in solution until they are deposited where they are needed, and carries away waste products.

About two and one-half quarts of water are eliminated normally from the lungs, kidneys, skin and intestines daily, and we must supply this loss. Usually from one to two quarts (from four to eight glasses) a day should be taken, in addition to that which is taken in the food. Children's bodies have a higher percentage of water than adults, so they need more water in proportion to their weight than adults.

It is an excellent practice to have regular times for water drinking. It is considered well to drink one or two glasses before breakfast (this can be taken moderately hot) and one or two glasses between meals. Children should always have one or two glasses to drink between meals and especially during hot weather.

Water drinking at meals is all right, unless excessive amounts are taken and unless it is used to wash the foods down. Ice water and other ice drinks are permissible in moderation, but taken rapidly and in too large amounts, they may cause severe intestinal disturbances, both in children and in adults.

Needless to say, all water must be pure.

"Dear Doctor—Do you object to slant? I hope not, for I must say that your system of reducing is the cat's pajamas. As I was not 'hog' fat, I did not go on the liquid diet, but started right off on the 1200 calories. And have lost three pounds in one week! My health has improved 100 per cent. No more do I have to take my little liver pill upon retiring, and I do feel so frisky—I can run upstairs two steps at a time now, and not get out of breath. If I can stick to my guns I will soon reach my correct weight of 120. I am 5 feet 2 inches, so 120 is correct, is it not?"

In Parliament Next?

LADY ALEXANDER KAY MUIR, formerly Nadejda Stancioff of Bulgaria, desires to become a member of the British Cabinet in time. She has had considerable experience in political and diplomatic circles.

LONDON, April 30.—When Nadejda Stancioff was secretary and right-hand man—or woman—to Stamboulsky, Bulgaria's martyred agrarian prime minister, Lord Curzon called her "the cleverest woman in Europe."

Nadejda is English now, rather Scottish, for she is the wife of Sir Alexander Kay Muir of Castle Blair Drummond. When she married she made it clear, as clear as her husband would allow her, that she was not going to sacrifice her career on the altar of domesticity. She is going to stand for Parliament. It will only be a matter of time, say those who know her and her capabilities, until she is a member of the British cabinet.

Lady Muir was born in Sofia in 1895. Her father is Bulgarian, and her mother was Albanian. Her father, who now is the Bulgarian minister in London, has held posts in Bucharest, Vienna, Petrograd, Paris and Rome. When the war came he was dismissed from the service and imprisoned by King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, on account of his pro-ally sympathies. Stamboulsky, then only a peasant agitator, was imprisoned for the same reason. After the war, when King Ferdinand was obliged by the allies to abdicate in favor of his son, Stamboulsky won the day. He became the great agrarian prime minister. He was a man of vision, but he was not cultured. Fully realizing his deficiencies, he obtained the co-operation of his foreign minister's daughter. Her command of six languages, her knowledge of international politics, and her tactful judgment he found invaluable.

Stamboulsky took her on two occasions to the convention of the League of Nations, and she has the distinction of being the only woman who has spoken from that platform. She was also his interpreter at Neuilly, at Genoa and at Lausanne.

A year ago the then Miss Stancioff was lent to Lord Robert Cecil as secretary-interpreter for the Treaty of Mutual Guarantees. She was then appointed to be first secretary to the Bulgarian legation at Washington. She never filled the post, but, instead, joined her father and worked as secretary to the London legation. When Stamboulsky was murdered, she resigned. Then she found romance.

Beauty Chats

DEVELOP THE BUST

The days have long since passed when women wrote inquiring for ways of developing the bust. Poets may have gone on praising the well rounded figure, but fashion designers introduced the chemise dress, which looked too hideously unbecoming when it billowed out in front. When that had waned in popularity, Lanvin and one or two other big Paris houses brought in jumper dresses with round white collars, straight lines, pockets and a belt, and these also look well only on the flat figure.

But not every woman wants to follow this fashion, which, in any case, is due for a reaction shortly. If you happen to be one of the rare people who wish to develop the bust, try some of the following methods.

First of all, learn to swim, and swim as much as possible. You can have a perfectly developed, firm and youthful looking figure for the rest of your days if you swim well and swim frequently. If you can't do that, take deep breathing exercises. Learn to stand with abdomen in and chest high, and, either outdoors or at an open window, learn to breathe deeply and regularly, filling first the lower part of the lungs and then the upper part with pure, fresh air. Twenty-five such deep breaths morning and night will do wonders in developing the bust.

There is also massage. It is not as effective as deep breathing, which is of more than local benefit. If you massage the bust, first of all wring a small bath towel from warm water and hold it over the skin, renewing the heat once or twice, then massage with warm cocoa butter, using a gentle rotary motion, and, if chest and shoulders are thin, extending the massage up over these parts. Wipe off whatever grease remains on the surface and dash ice cold water over the bust and the chest, or if you have ice, rub a piece of it directly over the skin for about five minutes.

through improved circulation. Massage several times a day, and if the hair continues to fall, do not be alarmed as all the loose hairs must come out so new ones will grow out in their place. If the improvement is not as rapid as you wish, include with the massage a good hair tonic, several times each week.

SECRET ROMANCE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 16 years old. I have been going with a young boy for quite a while. He is very nice and I love him. A few weeks ago I went out with another boy and girl. My parents found it out and they scolded me for they object to my going with boys. He also found it out but he didn't seem to care. I do not like this other boy and I can't go out without meeting him. Please give me your advice.

ABNER.

If you go with boys secretly, your parents are bound to find it out and then they will entirely lose their trust in you and will be less lenient with you later on when you particularly want your freedom. Since you are only 16 I would advise you to respect the wishes of your parents and stay away from boys. If you do not like one of the boys, speak when you meet him, but do not encourage conversation. After while he will realize his attentions are not wanted.

TRIALS OF LOVE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a girl for about five months and I love her very much. She has blonde hair and it is bobbed. She is very nice.

plecake: Sift three teaspoons of baking powder with one-half pound of flour, then stir into this one pint of sweet milk, the yolks of two eggs, one tablespoon of sugar, one teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of either lemon juice, orange juice or a little almond extract, a little cardamom, and last, fold in the two stiffly whipped egg whites. Cook on top of the stove in iron pans with cups in them—these pans cannot be bought in this country, I am afraid—in plenty of butter. When done they resemble apple fritters—although they contain no apple whatsoever.

"Danish Apple Cake (Mrs. G.): Mix together one teaspoon of baking powder and one pound of flour; add one quart of sweet milk, four beaten egg yolks, a little sugar, one teaspoon each of salt, lemon extract and cardamom, then fold in the four egg whites. Cook in the Danish pans which stand on top of the stove and contain little cups (or, if you haven't one of these, you might use muffin pans stood in a larger pan). Pour the dough from a pitcher into the cups, filling each cup only half full, and when cooked on the bottom, turn the little cakes so as to cook the top part. Serve hot with applesauce, each little cake sprinkled with confectioners' sugar.

"Sour Milk Apple Cake (Mrs. N.): Take two heaping cups of flour, one teaspoon of salt, mix together, then stir in a little sour milk or buttermilk. Now add the beaten yolks of two eggs, stir well again, and add more sour milk if necessary to make a soft batter. Dissolve one scant teaspoon of baking powder in a very little cold water and add this as well. Also add two stiffly beaten egg whites. Put iron pan over fire and, when hot, put one tablespoon of butter in each greased cup. When cakes are brown, turn them with a steel knife or fork. Serve hot with jelly.

"Yeast Raised Apple Cakes: Heat two pints of sweet milk to the scalding point, then cool slightly. When it has become lukewarm, add to it one cake of compressed yeast which has previously been dissolved in one-half cup of tepid water; also add one tablespoon of sugar, one cup of melted butter, four lightly beaten eggs, a little cardamom, and enough flour to make a soft batter. Stand the mixture in a warm place for two hours, to rise, then cook it on top of the stove in iron pans containing greased cups.

Poems That Live

THE WORLD IS TOO MUCH WITH US

The world is too much with us,
Late and soon,
Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;
Little we see in nature that is ours;

We have given our hearts away,
A sordid boon!
The sea that bares her bosom to the moon;

The winds that will be howling at all hours
And are up-gathered now like sleeping flowers;

For this, for everything, we are out of tune;
It moves us not. Great God! I'd rather be
A pagan suckled in a creed outworn;

So I might, standing on this pleasant lea,
Have glimpses that would make me less forlorn;

Have sight of Proteus rising from the sea,
Or hear old Triton blow his wreathed horn.
—William Wordsworth.

QUITE SO!

Daniel Webster was the guest at dinner of a solicitous hostess who insisted rather annoyingly that he was eating nothing at all, that he had no appetite, that he was not making out a meal. Finally, Webster, weary of her hospitable chatter and addressed her in his most ponderous senatorial manner:

"Madam, permit me to assure you that I sometimes eat more than at other times, but never less."

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S GARDEN

Uncle Wiggily, one day, hopped out into the yard behind his hollow stump bungalow. There was a sweet smell in the air for an April shower had just fallen, wetting the brown earth, and now the golden sun was shining warm and bright.

"I am going to make a garden!" cried the bunny gentleman. "I will dig up the ground and plant seeds so we may have cabbages, turnips and strawberry short-cake."

Uncle Wiggily was digging away in the earth, turning it over so the sun could warm it, and then raking it smooth so the seeds would have a smooth bed in which to rest before they sprouted up.

All of a sudden along came Johnnie Bushytail, the squirrel boy.

"Well! Well! Say, look here!"

"Oh, what a fine smooth place for me to hide a nut!" he chattered. And, before Uncle Wiggily could stop him that squirrel boy dug down into the bunny gentleman's smooth garden, making a hole, and in this hole Johnnie hid a nut which he saved from the year before.

"There, now, when I get hungry, coming back from school, I'll dig that nut up!" said Johnnie. "Thank you, Uncle Wiggily!"

"Yes, but I say—look here, you know what about my garden?" asked Mr. Longears, but Johnnie didn't stop to listen.

"Hum! That's funny," murmured Uncle Wiggily. Then he laughed a little and went on digging his garden, making it nice and smooth for the seeds.

All of a quickness along came running Peetie Bow Wow, the little puppy dog boy.

"Oh, what a fine smooth place for me to hide a bone," he told Peetie. And before Uncle Wiggily could stop him that doggie boy had dug down in the bunny gentleman's smooth garden, making a hole and in this hole Peetie hid a bone his mother had given him.

"There, now, when I get hungry, coming back from school, I'll dig that bone up!" said Peetie. "Thank you, Uncle Wiggily!"

"Well! Well! Say, look here, my doggie chappie! That's all very well, you burying your bone in my nice garden, but what about me planting seeds?" cried Mr. Longears. But Peetie didn't stop to listen.

Uncle Wiggily laughed, twinkled his pink nose and went on digging his garden, and making it smooth.

The sun was shining bright and warm, and the earth was smelling sweet with the perfume of spring when, all of a sudden, along came Sammie Littletail, the rabbit boy.

"Oh, what a fine garden you're making, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Sammie. "And what a grand place for me to hide Sister Susie's ball!"

And before Mr. Longears could stop him, Sammie had dug a deep hole in the fine, smooth garden bed, and into the hole he dropped a rubber ball.

"There now, Susie can't find her ball, and she can't take it to school to throw at the Lady Mouse Teacher!" laughed Sammie, as he patted the dirt down on the ball, making a hump in the garden.

"Yes, but I say—look here you know!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "But what about my garden? You can't mess up my garden like that you know—you and Johnnie and Peetie! And, why do you hide Susie's ball?"

"Mother told me to," said Sammie, and he was about to hop on to school, but Uncle Wiggily caught him by the ears and gently held him fast. "Susie takes her ball to school and throws it at the Lady Mouse Teacher for fun," went on Sammie. "So mother told me to hide it until after school, and your garden was such a fine place—"

"Oh, that's all right, Sammie,"

Would Wed In Jail

HELEN MARIE PATTERSON, wealthy divorcee, laughs at prison bars that surround her lover and talks of a marriage ceremony within the dark, drab walls of the bastille where he is held as an international crook.

PARIS, April 30.—Because she loves him so, Helen Marie Patterson wants to wed her accused lover in jail.

Helen Marie used to be the wife of Otto Young Heyworth, heir to $60,000,000. She, a beautiful young actress struggling for stardom, and he a lanky youth just returned from war, met at a tea in Chicago. She moved on to Atlantic City and he followed her. They were married six months after their first meeting.

Soon they separated, then they were divorced. He was too temperamental, and so was she. He was cruel, too, she said; once he burned a hole in her negligee. She was given a settlement of $45,000 and hid away to Paris. Followed days and days of gay life.

At a New Year's party she fell through a third floor window of a hotel.

Convalescing in the hospital, she met Harry Hussey. He showed her with flowers and letters of love. "I love you Harry," she learned to tell him. They were happy—at least she was—in the thought that she would soon be married to him. She was going to forget her former unhappy venture on the marital seas. Then the Paris police arrested Hussey. He was, they said, really "Kats" Tourbillon, "He's an international crook," they tried to explain to Helen Marie, "he's wanted in New York in connection with a $90,000 robbery."

She refuses to believe the charges and is preparing to wed Hussey, in jail if necessary.

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad

By CARL W. HARRIS

For International News Service.

CHICAGO, April 29.—Pacifism has reared its head in Chicago. Schools and colleges are split into bitter factions; discussion is threatened in churches; indignation meetings are called by members of the American Legion and other patriotic organizations; action by the police and federal authorities is being demanded to deal with a threat to overturn the nation with an anti-war sentiment fostered by little groups of the cosmopolitan in colleges, churches and clubs.

It is openly boasted by members of the pacifist groups here that recent outbursts of pacifist sentiment are not the expression of a small group of idealists, but rather part of a world-wide student movement which had its origin in the anti-conventional Wandervogel group, which proved such a powerful factor in Germany.

Twenty thousand college men and women in the United States already are enrolled in "The National Student Forum of America," is the claim of leaders of the movement here. "The ordinary American has no idea of how our movement has spread in this country," William Bernhart, pacifist leader, declared. "It is running like wildfire throughout the student bodies all over the United States."

The National Student Forum, he declared, already is planning the establishment of "student groups" in the large industrial cities of the country. Gary, Ind., and Pittsburgh, Pa., have been under consideration as places for the introduction of such groups, he said.

These groups, he explained, will work in the industries, learning the conditions under which the workers live, and will devote their spare time to reorganizing their city's social order in accordance with the forum's creed of economics. Workers, of course, will be taken in as members of the group, he added.

The pacifist movement here was first brought sharply to public attention in March, when persons attending a meeting in the First Methodist church of Evanston, at which Brent Dow Allison, convicted draft dodger, spoke, at that time the meeting almost broke up in a riot when several of the people became violently opposed to the speaker's theories.

and demanded an American flag be unfurled on the platform. The call against pacifism was immediately taken up throughout Evanston, Chicago and the surrounding territory. Others took up cudgels for the organization. Counter meetings were called to protest against the pacifist movement.

At Northwestern university a number of students became outspoken in their support for the forum. Church and school heads held consultations over the situation, and promised disciplinary measures against the ringleaders.

Orville Robert Hirsch, a conscientious objector during the war, came quickly to the fore as a leader in the pacifist movement, and flung into the teeth of the body's adversaries the statement that those who signed the pledge not to fight for their country under any circumstances "will keep that pledge if it costs them their liberty or life."

Four hundred students in St. Cyril's college here soon after unanimously adopted resolutions condemning "students in all and any institutions who subscribed to pledges of disloyalty to their country in time of war."

This was quickly followed by a movement at Northwestern university whereby all students were asked to sign pledges of allegiance to their country. The signing of the pledges became a momentous affair. There were demonstrations threatening violence to those who would not sign on the dotted line.

Conditions were not in the least bettered when reports came from St. Louis that the pacifists, or "The National Student Forum of America" had started a junior organization among school children and factory girls in that city. The organizers declared a hundred or so had already applied for membership.

Meanwhile, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of the Methodist Episcopal church, declared he was not a pacifist, nor was he in sympathy with pacifist schemes to use the churches to forward their schemes. Bishop Nicholson told a committee of past commanders of the American Legion who called to ask if he sanctioned, or the church approved, the speaking of Allison, the convicted draft dodger, before the Epworth League in the Evanston church.

CHILDREN MUST BE TAUGHT REVERENCE FOR LAW, SAYS ARCHBISHOP HAYES.

"It is not very encouraging to find a defense being proclaimed for the extent to which our boys and girls are going today. We are told it is the love of adventure only. But you cannot have such adventures and not carry the scars and wounds into eternity itself," said Archbishop Hayes of New York, at a meeting in New York, in which Roman Catholics, Jews and Protestants participated to discuss religious instruction of children who attend public schools.

"These speakers have all declared that religion is the one salvation for our children. After all, religion is a part of human life. Religion nowadays is on the front page. It is a very live question.

"We are anxious about the future of America. There is such a large percentage of the American people that is not affiliated with any religion. But I believe that at heart the American people are religious. We have reverence for authority, and that reverence, I think, will save us. But we must teach our children reverence for law."

"The child needs something more than a teacher to instruct it in the secular branches. Surely we ought not to deprive education of that essential need which we get from religion itself. You cannot make children obey the law unless you bring before them the great eternal law-giver Himself."

THE GLENDALE

"Scaramouch." Rex Ingram's new Metro super-film with Ramon Navarro and Alice Terry in the lovers' roles, continues at the Glendale theatre. The photoplay is from the Rafael Sabatini novel, which has attained the fourth dimension of art. The public can enjoy it in every phase of presentation—the original novel, the film, the stage play and now the opera.

"The daughter of the revolution," as Valentina Chevalier is called, is a survivor of the famous Russian "Battalion of Death." She took part in two recent Russian revolutions and is well fitted for the heroic role in "Scaramouch" as leader of Rex Ingram's mob of 10,000 surging French peasants and communists.

Although she spent thirteen years of her life in Russia, Mlle. Chevalier is French. She was born in Bordeaux but her mother, who was an opera singer, took her to Petrograd when she was six.

THE GATEWAY

Rupert Hughes' "Reno" opens at the Gateway Theatre tonight, the picture on the divorce problem that has stirred the populace of the big cities where it has been shown. In the cast is included Hedda Hooper, Helene Chadwick, Lew Cody, George Walsh, Carmel Myers, Hughie Mack and Dale Fuller.

The action of the unusual story centers around two young couples who hoped to end their matrimonial troubles through the divorce courts. A prim maiden aunt, some children with four sets of fathers and mothers, and complications which resulted when the laws began to conflict, carry the action of the story into a romantic cross-country chase that runs the gamut from grim drama to hilarity.

In addition, Vera Lyman, celebrated ballet dancer, is at the Gateway Theatre today in a series of interpretative dances. Miss Lyman has the reputation of being one of the daintiest toe dancers in the southwest.

Dinner Stories

IN RED INK

Two women in a country town were discussing their home troubles, when one asked, "By the way, what is your husband doing now?"

"Oh," said the other, "he's just a settin' round tellin' what's goin' to happen next election."

"Then he's a prophet."

"No, he ain't. So far as this family is concerned he's a dead loss."

ADDS TO VALUE

"Look here what I bought for that dog of Junior's," Mr. Burton announced, throwing a package on the table.

Mrs. Burton unwrapped it. "Why, George!" she exclaimed. "A dog collar—of all things."

"Yes, and I gave $3.50 for it," Mr. Burton related.

"Three dollars and a half," echoed Mrs. Burton. "What on earth? I don't understand! You've always said you had no use on earth for Junior's dog, and you wished somebody would steal it!"

"Yes, that's just it," Mr. Burton agreed. "With that collar on it, some one will be sure to steal it now!"

WILD PITCHING HELPS OAKS TO DEFEAT TIGERS

Opening Game of Series Is Won by Northern Team;
Final Score 8-5

By R. C. FRANKLIN
For Southern News Service
LOS ANGELES, April 30.—
Vernon won and then lost the opening game of the series against Oakland yesterday at Washington park. The Tigers piled up a considerable lead in the early innings due to the wildness of the great Waite, but they turned around and lost because Essick could not find a pitcher who could locate the plate. The final score was 8 to 5 and the Oaks came from behind and captured the contest after trailing for seven innings.

Oakland started orally in the eighth that netted five runs off four base swats, every Oak getting a chance at the plate.

Mails gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth and Bob Seibold took up the hurling duties and succeeded in baffling the hard-hitting Tigers for the remainder of the game with the exception of his first inning when one man crossed the rubber.

PORTLAND, April 30.—Portland got a lucky win over Sacramento here yesterday when a heavy rain storm broke at the end of the fifth inning with the score 1 to 0 against the visitors.
After thirty minutes it was raining harder than ever and the game had to be called. Leverenz held Sacramento to three hits in five innings and was pitching in great form. Portland scored their one run in the first off of Vinc McCann's single, Miller's double and Cox's single.

THE YEAR'S FIRST NEW CHAMPION

DICK
DORGAN

Abe Goldstein, the little East Side orphan, is the first new 1924 world's champion and the first Hebrew bantamweight champion in the history of the prize ring.
He is now king of a class which has had such great little fighting men as George Dixon, Jimmy Barry, Terry McGovern, Frankie Neil, Johnny Coulon, Kid Williams, Pete Herman and Joe Lynch as its rulers.

Abe was reared in the East Side tenements of New York and left an orphan when just a wee babe. His sister raised him and when he reached his thirteenth year he had to go shift for himself.

He belonged to a Y. M. H. A. at Ninety-second street, where he received his first boxing instruction from Nat Osk, winning a number of tournaments. After quite a little success, Abe turned professional and placed himself under Willie Lewis' wing. In 1920 Goldstein sprang into prominence by knocking out Al Zeimer, Lynch's protégé, in the eighth round. He came along fast then, holding his own with such men as Young Montel, Kid Williams, Johnny
Buff, the late Frankie Jerome, Terry Martin, Frankie Genaro and Kid Rush.

He took on Champion Joe Lynch on two days' notice and was rocked to sleep in eleven rounds. Undaunted by this defeat, he "carried on" and fought frequently in 1923. Last October Lynch failed to go through with his match with Joe Burman. At a last moment they called in Abe, who upset all the dope by trimming Burman in twelve rounds.
The New York commission suspended Lynch and appointed Goldstein the state champion. It was the strength of his defeat of Burman that Abe got his second shot at Lynch and, incidentally, won the crown.

Goldstein has a good business school education, and is a crack stenographer. He wants to take up law when his battling days are over.

Abe gives his manager, Willie Lewis, most of the credit for bringing him up from an obscure amate-teur to the championship.

Triumph Sweepstakes Is Feature at Ascot

The "Triumph Sweepstakes" will be the feature of a ten event card at Ascot Speedway next Sunday. The race will be at a distance of 15 laps, open to any car under 300 cubic inches, with a rich purse divided into six monies, and the Cecil DeMille gold and silver trophy which will go to the winner. Ralph DePalma, noted Italian, whose decisive victory over Sig Haugdahl on Sunday proved so sensational, filled his entry last night for the "Triumph" race and the Italian Victory Crown, the possession of which he won for a week on last Sunday.

Whether Sig Haugdahl will enter either race is problematical.
The Norwegian is still in the city and is not scheduled to race in the middle west until May 11.
Referee Charlie Keppen has wired a report of the Art Davidson case to the contest committee of the International Motor Contest Association. He made a recommendation that Davidson be set down for at least a week. In the event the Indianapolis youngster is disciplined his fast car will be turned over to Jack Petticoat, Canadian national champion, consistent winner of the Invitational race for the past two weeks.

Alexander had wonderful control,

L. A. 16, SEALS 12

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—
The Angels did their best to shove their townsmen Tigers into first place yesterday by whaling the Seals for a 16 to 12 victory, but as the Seals' bay companions trounced Bill Essick's crew, the Seals and Tigers are still tied at the top of the heap.

Bert Ellison and Marty Krug
each used four pitchers. Lefty Mitchell, who was poison to the Tigers, was knocked out of the box in the second inning when the visitors scored six runs. The Seals retaliated in kind by sending Charlie Root to the showers later in a barrage of safe blows. A total of 43 hits was registered during the ten innings which it took to decide the winner. A well worn path to the clubhouse was made by the various hurlers who were relieved during the game.

The game was full of crazy baseball, either comic or tragic, depending on the way you looked at it. Charlie Chaplin, comedian of note, was present and stated after the game that he picked up quite a few valuable pointers that would assist him materially in his next production.

Alarmists may be able to make something out of the suspension of Goto, the Japanese race driver who spilled into the Ascot pits last Sunday and nearly caused apoplexy among the boys. The authorities have thumbed him out of the league as dangerous to the health of the rest of the population at the track, on account of his evident inexperience in handling racing cars. As yet there has been no talk of "grave consequences."

DYNAMITERS WIN FROM MONROVIA

Glendale High Carries Away Long End of Score as Sluggfest Ends

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

Glendale High baseball artists registered their first win of the season by clipping the Monrovia Wildcats' claws yesterday at Monrovia in a lopsided slugfest, 17-9.
Although Lefty Brooks started for the locals it took dependable Charley Smith to put an end to the opposers' assault in the eighth inning.

The Dynamiters started off with a bang in the first canto, scoring three runs on singles by Bud Elliott and Fred Smith, a triple by Elmer Muff, and a poorly played fielder's choice.

The locals followed this up with six more markers in the second chapter. With one away Stumpf was safe at second on Hofland's bad peg to first. Bender soaked Brooks who pulled off a do-me steal with Stumpf. The latter scored on Lovell's sharp single to right, Elliott doubled sending in Brooks. Muff then walloped the apple far into the grassy depths of left garden where it elastically bounced over the fence for a ho-mar. Dotson and F. Smith were caught in a "pickle." W. Bender scored on Minzel's sharp single to right, Elliott doubled sending in Brooks. Muff then walloped the

This announcement was made last night at the board meeting of the Chamber of Commerce by Secretary E. Eustace B. Moore, president of the Glendale Federated Teachers' association, appeared before the board and presented a letter from the association, asking the Chamber of Commerce for the courtesies that have been extended to the Parents' association over a long period, including the use of the Chamber of Commerce rooms for meetings, for the appointment of a school committee, and for the attention shown in many other ways.

View Buying at Home
New of the restrictions on the exchange of goods as a result of the foot and mouth quarantine, local realtors will be urged by the Chamber of Commerce to purchase supplies, wherever possible, from manufacturers and producers in this county, and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has offered its assistance in finding the names of manufacturers or anyone who wants to get in touch with Los Angeles county agents or distributors.

This means, it is claimed, that in this county will be the first to see a source of supply during the present restrictions, and that the names will be posted on the walls of supply within their immediate territory.

The convention delegates were most happy to greet Mrs. Helen Street Ranney, executive secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific, who told of the growth and needs today. She told of the work in the various countries and of the raising of $150,000 in the recent jubilee.

Later a group of missionaries were presented to tell of their foreign service; Mrs. James D. Eaton directed the flag service, in which a flag was presented for every missionary in the foreign field; and Mrs. R. C. Dennison led the devotional hour, "Stewardship."

There were 200 women attending the noon luncheon at the Congregational church.

This afternoon the final session was held with the chief address by Dr. Remsen du Bois Bird, president of Occidental college, who spoke on "How Shall a California Christian Think?" concerning the Japanese question.

The reports of the attendance and resolutions closed the afternoon.

South California Members
Honor International
Head at Dinner

Twenty-one members of the Glendale Kiwanis club attended the luncheon given last night by the Los Angeles Kiwanis club in honor of Edmund F. Arras, of Columbus, Ohio, international president of the organization. The luncheon was held at the Hotel Alexandria and was attended by more than 300 Kiwanians from Southern California cities.

Clyde C. Shoemaker, president of the Los Angeles club, delivered the address of welcome and introduced Brook Hawkins, who officiated as toastmaster. The community singing was led by Dr. Frank Purdy of the Kiwanis club of Buffalo. Several violin solos were given by Sol Cohen and Margaret Messer Morris delighted the guests with several vocal selections. Clarence Kellogg was accompanist.

A. Heber Winder, district governor, introduced Mr. Arras, who gave a brief address on the work of Kiwanis clubs throughout the United States. Mr. Arras outlined plans for the national convention to be held in Denver in June. From Los Angeles Mr. Arras will tour the northwest, visit clubs in Canada, then to Chicago and later to his home, where he will rest a few days before leaving for Denver.

A feature of the entertainment was motion pictures showing the international headquarters at Chicago and the work of the Los Angeles club, including scenes taken at the picnic given for the boys of the McKinley home.

Riverside Gets Meet
Mrs. J. R. Lash presided at this morning's meeting when an invitation was extended and accepted for the convention to meet next year in Riverside.

Of special interest during the morning was the announcement that Mrs. J. E. Barbour of Claremont has given $4000 toward a $6000 cottage to be built on the twenty acres in Claremont for missionary rest homes and dedicated to Miss Nina Rice, a most capable missionary in Turkey, who is coming home on furlough this summer for her first vacation since the war.

This morning Mrs. W. B. Green of Whittier reported on foreign field work and in concluding made a plea for constructive service. "We want constructive service," she said, "and constructive service is not synonymous with presentism."

Then she introduced a demonstration under the title "Missions Not War." There appeared Columbia and Uncle Sam to discuss world problems and in order to prove that war was not the solution Columbia introduced representatives of the peoples of Mexico, Japan, China, Turkey, India and Africa, all of whom told of the missionary work being done. Each pleaded for constructive service and demonstrated that it is preferable to war. Those taking part were from Whittier.

The convention delegates were most happy to greet Mrs. Helen Street Ranney, executive secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific, who told of the growth and needs today. She told of the work in the various countries and of the raising of $150,000 in the recent jubilee.

COMMENT That's All

Quit Realty For Reels
Don't Worry About Plague
Good Crops In Valley
Eat Fruit, Vegetables

By Gil A. Cowan

Good news for the picture people. Paramount starts producing eighteen pictures immediately, with more than two score lined up for the year.

Other producers also are active and hundreds of film people who have been engaged in the real estate business undoubtedly will return to reel life the better for their contact with the public.

That's one thing about the southern anyone will admit is good for the soul. When you tire of one thing there is opportunity to try another. And we find that motion picture actors are quite versatile, many of them here in Glendale working at various trades, professions and vocations.

Taken as a whole, the film folks are a mighty desirable lot, particularly those who are not spoiled with large salaries or imported from New York and Paris. We have a natural antipathy against those fickle souls who do not appreciate our wholesome western atmosphere.

A very thorough and systematic program now is being carried in dealing with the cattle plague. The federal and state authorities have organized their forces in the last ten days so effectively that the writer believes no further fears need be held by the public.

First, let it be known that meat and milk are perfectly safe for human consumption. Inspectors are present at every slaughterhouse, veterinarians are in attendance of every herd daily. There is no need for fear—indeed, people may rest assured that their supply of food is better now than ever before.

Second, the loss to cattle owners should in no way affect other business pursuits. Regulations will be made in the next few days, it is predicted, which will bring business conditions back to normal. And the hue and cry about fumigation is nothing more or less than "fumdiddlers," as the colored boy would say.

The writer last week traveled over the state, noted how the fumigation was being done—and it is not at all disturbing to the traveler. Forget it, and go ahead with your business as planned. And believe half what you read for irresponsible reporters make the most of such an opportunity to malign California for eastern consumption.

Good crops in the San Fernando valley this year is the prediction of Governor Richardson, who had occasion to look over this prosperous section the first of the week.

The governor is quite an observing, practical man. He does not believe in the hysteria prevalent over the foot-and-mouth disease. While it is serious and should be combated with all vigor, at the same time he advises a straight-ahead course for the builders, manufacturers and merchants.

There undoubtedly will be compensating conditions which will give this state its customary ratio of prosperity.

Incidentally, if any of your eastern friends are planning a trip to the coast this summer, write them to "come ahead." There is no reason why this should not be a great tourist year here.

What Glendale needs to do now is oversubscribe its advertising funds and boost itself.

Keep the good work up.

Eat fruit and vegetables from Glendale's market basket now, folks.

Strawberries, lettuce and what-not are on the market. Take the trouble to have plenty of fresh fruit and green food on the table. They contain the vitamins so necessary to life. They are responsible, we believe, for the superior race of young people.

Glendale people may consider themselves fortunate that they are close to a source of supply of fruit and vegetables. More should be eaten and more should be grown.

And in this way California will become greater in two ways.

AMARANTH COURT NEW OFFICIALS ARE INSTALLED

Impressive Services Held
At Masonic Temple In Bower of Flowers

A beautiful old-fashioned garden was seen last night in the Masonic Temple on South Brand boulevard, where the Ionic court, Order of Amaranth, was constituted and Nana King Custer, well known singer and pianist, crowned queen and royal matron of the corps of officers installed.

Countless beautiful spring roses were used by Mrs. Gertrude Baldwin and her decoration committee in transforming the lower hall of the temple into a garden setting for the evening ceremony.

Henry Parlee was master of ceremonies and assisting him were the following grand installing officers: Mrs. Snow, past grand royal matron; W. D. Smith, grand royal patron; Osa R. Smith, acting grand marshal; Enola Thrash, acting grand marshal in east; Phyllis McKee, acting grand marshal in west; Fidelia Beck, secretary; Belle S. Gates, acting grand marshal.

Many Present
There were over 300 members and guests gathered for the ceremonial and all were deeply impressed with the beauty of the scene and dignity of the occasion when officers made their entrance. "An Old Fashioned Garden" was played as they entered, supreme officers, grand officers, past supreme officers, past grand elective officers, royal matrons and royal patrons, past royal matrons and past royal patrons and officers to be installed.

Each of the women carried a quaint old fashioned bouquet and wore red tulle bows on their wrists. Each man wore an indicative of the order a red ribbon with the name of the court, across his shirt front. These ribbons were the artistic work of Mrs. Custer's sister, Lucille King Cox.

Every phase of the formal installation emphasized the character of the organization, charity and benevolence. Particularly impressive was the coronation scene, when Mrs. Custer received her crown and became ruling royal matron.

Officers Installed
Officers installed were Nana King Custer, royal matron; D. Ripley Jackson, royal patron; Gertrude Baldwin, associate matron; Mark T. Lee, associate patron; Bess T. Emerson, secretary; Lulu B. Burson, treasurer; Maude A. Evans, conductress; Grace A. Jackson, associate conductress; Edward Emerick, chairman, Mrs. John Fraser, Mrs. G. Coghlin, trustees; Ava Bellinger, standard bearer; Edna L. Lee, marshal in east; Margaret Ryther, marshal in west; Edith Richardson, promoter; Albert Burson, historian; Alma George Phelps, musician; Eleanor Denman, truth; Selma Denman, faith; Laura Baldwin, wisdom; Luella Emerick, charity; G. Riberly, warder; P. Macum Custer, sentinel.

During the coronation scene last night, Belle S. Gates was selected; Kathleen Emily Custer, crown bearer; Grace Anna Jackson, sword bearer.

Margaret Harris was flag bearer and following her entrance allegiance was pledged to the flag.

Constituting Officers
Constituting officers serving were Mrs. Snow, past grand royal matron; W. D. Smith, grand royal patron; Ann Morgan, associate royal matron; Mark T. Lee, associate royal patron; May McCormick, grand secretary; Elita Koll, grand treasurer; Azelia Zeigler, grand conductress; Della Wiebers, grand associate conductress; Fidelia Beck, grand prelate; Osa R. Smith, grand marshal; Enola Thrash, grand marshal in east; Rose Riggle, grand marshal in west; Clara A. Carver, grand standard bearer; David Livinston, grand historian; Belle S. Gates, grand musician; Mary Holt, grand truth; Mary Harding, grand faith; Lydia Wood, grand wisdom; Caroline Nash, grand charity; Amelia Maxwell, grand warder; Harry Evans, grand sentinel.

Serving as ushers were Dr. S. B. Bellinger, Charles Burson and George Emerson.

Musical Numbers
Through the installation there were most enjoyable musical numbers. A trio, including Mrs. Dwan Herring, Lucille King Cox, violinists; Herbert Baines, cellist; Mrs. Herbert Baines, pianist; played beautifully "Serenade" and "Apple Blossoms."

Equally as delightful was the "cello solo, "Evening Star" by Mr. Baines; vocal solo by G. H. Phelps, "Ye Who Live in Sacred Places"; piano numbers by Alma Geiger Phelps; vocal solo by Mrs. C. Coghlin, "Oh, Dry Those Tears."

At the close of the formal program Mrs. Custer was made most happy by receiving a basket of beautiful flowers from Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bourne, and a lovely bouquet of roses sent by express from the north from Mr. and Mrs. Arab Leland.

The Ionic court is to meet the first and third Tuesday nights of each month at the Masonic temple.

FORMER CHAMPS WILL APPEAR AT BASEBALL GAME

Willard and Jeffries Will Officiate at Kiwanis
Exchange Contest

Two former heavyweight champions have consented to officiate at the ball game Saturday afternoon between the Kiwanis and Exchange clubs, being staged at the White Sox park for the benefit of the $50,000 advertising campaign fund. The entire proceeds of the game will be turned over to the Chamber of Commerce for the fund.

Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries are the former champions who have signified their intention of being present and taking part in the game, and the baseball committee today is calling upon Jack Kearns in an effort to have Jack Dempsey, present world's heavyweight champion present.

Should Dempsey be able to appear, it will be the first time in the history of fistfight that three heavyweight title holders have appeared in public. Dempsey is busy engaged in motion picture work at Universal City, but it is thought he will lay aside his grease paint and make-up box on Saturday afternoon to help the good cause.

Practice for Game
Members of the Exchange club team turned out for practice yesterday afternoon at the park. President "Bob" Johnston did the hurling in the practice game, and his offerings kept the opponents swinging. It was rumored that several members of the Kiwanis club were present to get a line on the Exchange club players.

Reports from the Exchange club headquarters today were to the effect that the Kiwanis club was reported to have induced several high-class ballplayers to join the club so they would be eligible to play Saturday. This President Baird denies, and points to the fact that the Exchange club members entertained Carl Sawyer, the White Sox captain and star, at luncheon yesterday, and want to know if he has been made an honorary member of the Exchange club.

Concrete Pavements Grow Stronger Year After Year

When you vote for a paved road or street, you want to know that you won't be called upon for assessments every now and then to repair or rebuild it.

Built according to present-day high standards, Concrete roads and streets permanently withstand the heaviest pounding and grinding of modern traffic. In fact, they grow stronger year after year.

That is because their definitely proportioned mixture of sand, pebbles or broken stone, and water, is held together by the everlasting grip of that tenacious binder, portland cement.

Concrete Pavements have the repair built out and the maintenance built in. That is why they pay you handsome dividends in satisfaction and service.

Firm, rigid, unyielding, and the last word in paving economy, Concrete Roads and Streets are also skid-proof. And their color is a pleasing, light gray—another very important advantage, especially for night driving.

Watch for advertisements telling about the many other uses of concrete. And remember that the Portland Cement Association has a free personal service to offer you. Whether you use concrete or have it used for you, this service will give you more for your money.

Our booklets R-3 and R-4 tell many interesting things about Concrete Roads and Streets. Which one would you like us to send? There is no charge.

EAGLE ROCK

'VALLEY PLAYERS' CLUB'S NEW NAME

Reorganized Little Theatre Movement to Be Known by Unique Title

It is believed that "Valley Players" would be a better name for the reorganized Little Theatre movement of this section than "Community Players," under which banner they achieved numerous artistic triumphs last year. The new name is more representative, the leaders in the movement feel.

"Valley Players," they feel, also has an appeal that will be easier to capitalize in interesting new people in the work and productions of this organization. It is getting a substantial foundation, backed by equally substantial business men who still have enough romance left in their souls after playing the dollar and cents game for years to find recreation in furthering the "Little Theatre" movement.

The new group will function under a well-drawn constitution, not too complicated, but complete enough to cover all the needs of the players. Plans have been laid whereby those who do not care for the actual stage work will find an opportunity to engage in sidelines that are essential to the productions and are likewise instructive and fascinating. There will be costuming, lighting, stagecraft, and producing to be carried for by individual groups under competent people who have had actual experience in the work.

Wherever the new name, "Valley Players," has been suggested it has met with popular favor and bids fair to create wider interest outside this district. The organization has hitherto been able to command. If there is no objection, nor better suggestion forthcoming at the next meeting of the players the name will be incorporated in the constitution and hereafter Eagle Rock's creditable little group will be known as the "Valley Players."

"Sourdoughs" Meet
Local sourdoughs under the leadership of Major H. L. Suydam, president of the Alaska-Yukon club, attended the meeting of Disabled Veterans of the World War, held in Los Angeles Monday night. They heard Ezra Meeker relate his experiences in Alaska, enjoyed readings of Miss Virginia Bartlett and were thrilled by the rendition of Robert W. Service's poems given by William Burns, who entertained the U. S. soldiers for two years overseas.

A banquet was held at the Congregational church last night in the new banquet hall. Clifton J. Soft spoke on "Freedom Under the Flag."

The following local musicians are among those now at San Jose attending the music convention: Mrs. A. J. Brasch, Mrs. Alada Ludlow, Miss Leora Johnstone, Miss Ethel Congdon, Miss Virginia Harsh, Mrs. Hillier and Miss Phronso Thompson, the delegate representing the Junior auxiliary of the Twentieth Century club.

REAGAN TALKS ON FLOOD SITUATION

Chief Engineer Speaks at Special Meeting About Bond Election

At a special meeting of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce held last night, Chief Engineer Reagan of the county flood control department addressed the members on the proposed bond election called for May 6.

A large crowd attended the mass meeting held Friday night at the Tujunga school auditorium and several questions pertaining to flood control and the last bond issue were discussed. It was learned from one of the representatives of the flood control department that the $35,000 allotted to Tujunga for work in Haines canyon after the last bond election had not been entirely spent elsewhere, as has been reported, but that a part of it is still available for the work for which it was originally intended. This assurance encouraged the doubting Thomases to believe that those check dams may yet be built in Haines canyon and that there is a possibility that a reservoir would be built with the money specified in the proposed improvement of flood control program.

Community duty and responsibility and the relative mentality of Boy Scout and other boys was the subject of an address by C. J. Carlson, district Scout executive of the Long Beach council, at the last meeting of the Kiwanis club. Scout work in its various branches was also discussed and Douglas Day, a member of the Boy Scouts, thanked the Tujunga club for its prompt and material help in raising the money with which to carry on Scout work.

May Day Dance
"Wake me early, mother dear, for I'm to be Queen of the May." Tujunga Kiwanis club members are not expecting to break into the ranks of royalty, but they know that they are liable to be crowned with a fine if they don't arrive early with their queens at the first annual May Day dance.

All that's only the half of it. All neighboring clubs have been invited to attend with their queens, or anybody's, in the late evening taking their own chances. Likewise all residents of the Verdugo hills are cordially invited to be there and have their glooms, if any, annoyed by an evening of fun and frolic, to say nothing of diverting drolleries during the dancing. There will be festive samplings (be careful how you police what you think they are invited.) You'll Be Astonished.

Lucky spot dances, novelty dances and other gloom dispellers too numerous to mention and too good to talk about, all with prizes for the lucky. Then there will be—well, you'll be astonished! All this and more will happen at the first annual May Day dance of the Tujunga Kiwanis club at the Tujunga Kiwanis club, 1212 Pine, next Thursday, May 1, which is next Thursday. McLaughlin's orchestra will endeavor to prove that no foot can resist the strains of its horns and fiddles, and if anyone doesn't get 75 cents' worth out of the evening, the management will give them a rain check and they can attend the next May Day dance in 1925 free.

Mrs. Moore to Talk Before Science Club

The Occult Science of Christ, Health and Success club will hold its regular weekly meeting tomorrow night, Thursday, May 1, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Moore, in charge. She will lecture on the Law or Method of Attaining Wealth or Success. This will be followed by a reading by Mrs. Mildred Goetz.

The rest of the evening will be devoted to message circles by Mrs. Mabel Moore, Guy Moore and Mrs. Phillips. An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 30.—Edward Fouse, who came here from San Francisco a year ago, was found dead in the office of the Grand View hotel here yesterday morning sitting in a chair with a smoking revolver in his hand. He had been employed as hotel clerk. No motive is known.

Padel is the voice instructor of the Sherwood school. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watson have left for Catalina island, to take over active management of their hotel, the Western House.

The Women's Bible Study class that was formed last week met again yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fainot, 614 Olive avenue. A children's bible study class has also been formed, to meet on Tuesdays. News of this class will be announced later.

At the twenty-first annual convention of California state chapter P. E. O. convening in Los Angeles last week, Chapter U of Burbank was again honored when one of its members, Mrs. Faith Story of 233 Angeleno avenue, was elected first state vice-president. This is Mrs. Story's fourth year on the state board, having served last year as treasurer and as corresponding secretary the two previous years. She was also presented with a certificate of recognition for having filled all offices in the local chapter, which placed her on the state roll. Mrs. Story is an efficient officer and well deserving of the highest honors.

LA CRESCENTA

CLUB WILL HEAR NOTED DIVA SING

Music Students Will Attend Galli-Curci's Concert In Los Angeles

Members of the Aelian Music club will go in a body to hear the famous Galli-Curci tomorrow night. The club is composed of the advanced members of Miss Margaret Hauber's music class and every two weeks the members hold most interesting meetings when the music scores of the different operas are discussed, together with the life of the composer. During these discussions the best known selections from the opera being studied are played, generally on a phonograph.

Two of Miss Hauber's pupils, the Misses Mildred and Henrietta Biescar, will soon give a farewell concert over KJH, assisted by little Miss Rosalie Tuso, 7-year-old soprano. The Misses Biescar are leaving with their parents for an all-summer tour through Europe and the British Isles.

Association Meets
Thursday, May 1, is the regular monthly meeting of the La Crescenta Improvement association. There are a number of civic improvements to be discussed, so it is desirable to have 100 per cent attendance of members. The meeting will, as usual, be held in the La Crescenta schoolhouse at 8 p. m.

From all present indications it looks as if South La Crescenta, known as Verdugo City, is to have its own postoffice—that is, if the officials at Washington, D. C., accept the recommendations made by the local authorities.

A number of patient citizens are at last being rewarded by having telephones installed in their homes. There has been a delay of many months in some cases, owing to the tremendous clamor for phone service all through this section of the southland.

Meeting of Guild

Thursday afternoon, May 1, is the regular monthly meeting of St. Luke of the Mountains Woman's Guild. There will be an interesting letter read from the Alaska Mission, where the garments made by the ladies during Lent are to be sent. This letter will give some idea of the work being done in the far north, the hardships of the life there and the joy the missionary bundles bring to the hearts of missionary and native alike.

The meeting will be held at the La Crescenta hotel on Michigan avenue, as Miss Drennan, who has so many times been the hostess to the Guild, offered her hospitality once more to the members. These meetings are opened at 2:30 promptly and anyone who is not on time must, of course, miss much of the important business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen entertained a congenial group of fourteen friends at dinner, the occasion being the fourteenth wedding anniversary of the Hansens, also the birthday anniversary of the host and two of the guests—some of whom came from Long Beach and others from Bell.

Lunches for Pupils

Lunches at a very modest figure are now being served the children at the Los Angeles Avenue school. The cooking is done by an experienced person, the kids eating the hot food on tables in the school corridors and patio. So far the new arrangement seems a huge success—as a splendid lunch including dessert can be purchased for 20 cents.

Tomorrow night, Thursday, is the night of the Roscetta Chorus sing. Be sure to be present as the final arrangements are to be made for the trip to Hollywood Bowl on Sunday. The sing will be held in Montrose schoolhouse.

Army Invention Marks Dawn Of Revolutionary Era In Communication

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The dawn of a new era in radio and cable communication was heralded by Major-General George C. Squier, former chief naval officer of the army, at the annual meeting of the National Academy of Sciences here today.

The signal corps of the army, he said, had produced a universal automatic telegraph transmitter, applicable to radio, land lines and submarine cables, which will give cables speed and accuracy unthought of at present. The invention will be used in the Seattle-Alaska cable to Ketchikan.

Two Firms Ask Right To Do Trucking Jobs

One was by the C. C. (Cartwright) Transfer and Garage, which will have Los Angeles as its feeding point. The other was the Anaheim Truck and Transfer, which states there is a need for its line running to Los Angeles harbor.

BOY PROBLEM IS SPEAKER'S THEME

Juvenile Court Worker Will Urge Better Training of Young Citizens

Rev. Edgar W. Pasko of Tujunga, former Los Angeles county deputy sheriff and juvenile court worker, will present the boy problem from the viewpoint of an officer at the next meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Tujunga Community church, Tuesday night, May 6, at Community church. A program featuring a female quartet will follow the dinner to be served by the ladies of the church.

Dr. Pasko has had wide experience in handling so-called bad boy cases in connection with the juvenile court and his address should prove interesting to all who are interested in the problem of producing better citizens by proper training of the boys.

Boys Enjoy Trip

The recent trip made by a large party of Boy Scouts and Scout executives to the Mexican border for the purpose of inspecting government institutions was productive of not only extensive instruction but a great amount of pleasure for the boys. The party camped most of the time and cooked their own meals. They traveled in the big busses plying between Los Angeles and the southern points. The trip was made along the coast highway to San Diego, special permits having been secured to pass the quarantine guards after the customary fumigation.

Monday afternoon the boys were taken through the mission at San Juan Capistrano and listened to an interesting talk by the priest in charge. Camp was made that night three miles south of the mission. Patrols of eight boys each, with a leader for each patrol, were organized. Each Scout was assigned to a definite duty, such as cooking, washing dishes, furnishing firewood and other camp necessities.

A campfire was built in the evening and the different patrols contributed stunts and stories to an evening of entertainment.

Tuesday the party proceeded over the Torrey Pines grade to the Scripps biological station, later visiting the sea caves at La Jolla and the museum at Rasmussen's marriage place. Wednesday the boys camped at the Indian village at Balboa Park, which belongs to the Boy Scouts of San Diego. Elwood Barley, Scout executive of San Diego, welcomed the boys and gave them the freedom of the village.

Wednesday the party proceeded to the Mexican border, visiting the international monument and later listening to an interesting talk by Customs Inspector Hanna.

Visit Aviation Base
Returning to San Diego, the boys were taken on a trip across the bay to the big naval air base, through the courtesy of Scout Executive Barley and Captain Oakley D. Hall. They went through the naval plant on North Island and saw the airplanes, hydroplanes, ships and torpedoes and many other things interesting to the boys.

Camp was made that night at the first camping place at San Juan Capistrano. After finishing supper the boys held a spanking machine bee for some chosen victims and built the customary campfire.

Thursday the boys spent touring the orange groves in the neighborhood. Scout officers in charge of the expedition were: Scout Executive Harvey R. Cheesman, Deputy Scout Commissioner Louis Wilson, Assistant Scoutmasters C. G. Farrow, George Burroughs and Eugene Farr; Senior Patrol Leaders Dave Chandler, Donald Castlin, Carroll White and Wilbur Booth.

SOLDIER SPEAKS ON CHRISTIANITY

League of Nations Gains Tremendous Success, Is Claim of Lecturer

are so busy with the trees that they cannot see the forest. "Conary to the belief of many, the League of Nations is a tremendous success. In all history there is no instance of a body so young that has accomplished so much. The League of Nations cannot prevent war. No one intelligent would claim that. But it can and does build up a world sentiment that will ultimately make war impossible.

Need Higher Standard

"There is no international problem that is not amenable to reason, if the will is there. What we need in the world today is a higher standard of political ideals, and this goes for America as well as Europe. Americans are not so good-goody that they are going to be hurt by mingling with the rest of the world. The world waits for America. If this nation is to be consistent with the principles on which it was founded and by reason of which it has grown great, it must assist the rest of the world to lift humanity up. The globe is growing too small for any one nation to longer stand aloof.

"England used to think it was an island, safely isolated. Now all Europe is but an island in the air—and America's isolation is imaginary. We are all one in the modern world and we must all join hands and heads in solving its problems."

Stenographers Form Organization of Own

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Everybody "stenos" will have the chance from now on to have a place in the sun. Woe betide the employer who does not treat his key-puncher with the utmost of consideration, for at last the girls of the shorthand brigade have organized. The first meeting of the Southwest branch of the International Association of public Stenographers was held Sunday afternoon in their offices in the Loew's State building. The principal discussion was whether stenography came under the heading of a trade or a profession. The final decision that it was a profession made everybody happy. It is also part of their program to bring about a better understanding between the public stenographer and the owner of the building in which they operate.
